

RIGHT TO HEALTH SERVICES UNDER THREAT

68,582 people (34,135 male, 34,447 female) residing in 156 communities in Area C are deprived of their right to health and to access adequate medical care

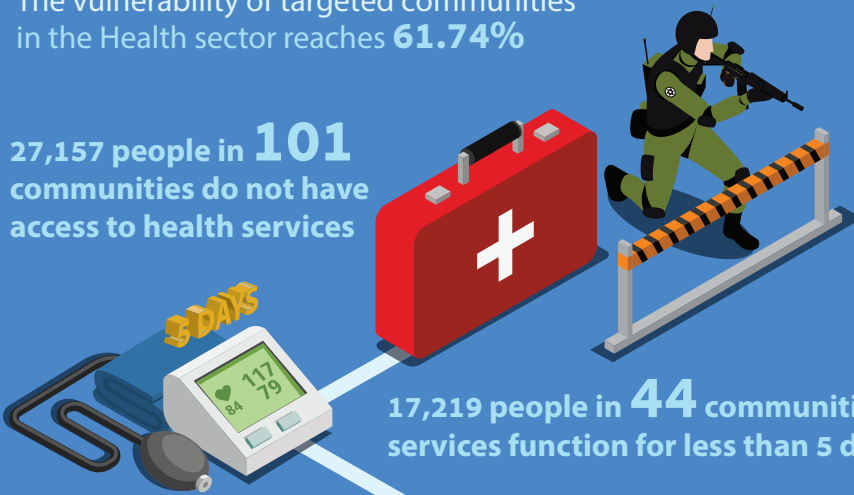

Protection Vulnerability Index:

0: no vulnerability
100: the highest level

The vulnerability of targeted communities in the Health sector reaches 61.74%

68,582 people in 156 communities face obstacles to access health services such as: lack of public and private transportation, bad road conditions, settler violence and movement restrictions imposed by the Israeli Authorities

27,157 people in 101 communities do not have access to health services

17,219 people in 44 communities the health services function for less than 5 days a month

40,748 people in 111 communities reported that distance to access proper healthcare facility was a major challenge, with an average roundtrip of 60 minutes

35 communities pay between 50 to 100 shekels to reach the closest health service provider; 2 communities pay over 100 shekels

39 communities need construction of a health clinic

6 communities need clinic furnishing rehabilitation upgrading

15 communities need provision of an ambulance

24 communities need to be visited by mobile health clinics to improve access to primary health care services

9 communities need 446 hygiene kits to help improve hygiene behaviors

